PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Dr. Martin W. Schweitzer, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God our heavenly Father, we come into Thy presence this evening in the multitude of Thy mercy, and in Thy fear we will worship Thee. Let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, our Strength and our Redeemer. We begin with our confession, for we have sinned against Thee, in thought and word and deed. We have broken Thy holy laws, we have come short of Thy righteousness and glory in all our ways; our lives bear testimony against us and our hearts condemn us as being prone to all evil and backward to all good. But let Thy mercy be upon us, O Lord, according as we hope in Thee. Make us indeed poor in spirit, that ours may be the kingdom of heaven. Make us to mourn for sin, that we may be comforted by Thy grace. Make us to be meek, that we may inherit the earth. Make us to hunger and thirst after righteousness, that we may be filled therewith. Make us merciful, that we may obtain mercy. Make us pure in heart that we may see Thee. Make us to be peacemakers, that we may be called Thy children. Make us willing even to be persecuted for righteousness' sake, that our reward may be great in heaven. And all this we ask is in the name of Christ our Saviour. Amen.

RESOLUTION No. 6.

Mr. SHEELY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up Resolution No. 6, file folio 295, and move its adoption.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the resolution.

The Clerk read the resolution as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 6, 1929.

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That it is the sense of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that the authorities in charge of all schools and educational institutions of every character in this Commonwealth should at the opening exercises each day such schools and institutions are conducted require the pupils and students attending to take with fitting ceremony the following pledge

"I pledge allegiance to my Flag and to the Republic for which it stands One Nation indivisible with Liberty and Justice for all"

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Department of Public Instruction to each school and educational institution in the Commonwealth

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION.

Mr. SHEELY offered the following resolution and asked unanimous consent for its adoption.

The resolution was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 11, 1929.

Whereas, The members of the Constitutional Convention who framed our National Constitution, litttle dreamed that a large body of foreigners would come to America and remain here for a period of years without becoming citizens thereof, and

Whereas, The different states had a different basis of naturalization as well as a different basis of suffrage, making it impracticable at the time the Constitution was adopted to exclude aliens from the country in proportioning the number of members to Congress from each State, and

Whereas, That although the unnaturalized alien may pay tax, nevertheless he has no vote in choosing any public official, nor would any thinking American citizen say it was "taxation without representation," in view of the fact that every unnaturalized alien has the same right our forefathers had to qualify for American citizenship, and

Whereas, The unnaturalized aliens without the obligations of citizenship have been given, unintentionally by the framers of our Constitution, the same right in influencing the affairs of America as is given every American citizen in determining the number of representatives in Congress from each state, and

Whereas, The vote of the representatives in Congress who may vote the wishes of the unnaturalized aliens from their district or state, may be the deciding vote as to whether or not America will depart from the laws, customs and ideals that have made America, and

Whereas, The result of a presidential election may depend upon the increased vote of any state in the electoral college through the fact that a state has a large body of unnaturalized aliens who are counted in the choosing of the number of delegates each state shall have in the electoral college, and

Whereas, Pennsylvania, the Keystone of the Union, had the honor and pleasure of seeing the original Constitution written in its foremost city, Philadelphia, known as the Cradle of Liberty, and

Whereas, the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, now in session, will adjourn the eighteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That it is the consensus of opinion of the members of the General Assembly of the State of Pennsylvania, that both Houses of Congress at Washington should, on or before Washington's birthday, pass a resolution proposing an amendment to our National Constitution that will provide for the apportionment of members to Congress from each State based on citizenship; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives be instructed to send copies of this resolution to the Speaker of the House of Representatives at Washington, and also to the Vice-President of the United States, with the request that it be read before each House of Congress; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania be instructed to mail a copy of this resolution to each member of the Congress of the United States from this Commonwealth with the request that they work to have such resolution passed on or before Washington's birthday in order that the Legislature of Pennsylvania may have the honor of ratifying the amendment before the date of adjournment.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to the adoption of the resolution at this time?

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I understand that it goes over under the rules.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Adams has requested unanimous consent for the adoption of this resolution. Does the gentleman from Adams press his request for unanimous consent?

Mr. SHEELY. Mr. Speaker, I do.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I hesitate to object to the gentleman's request, but I must confess that I do not know what is in that resolution, and therefore I ask that it go over under the rules.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection, therefore the resolution will lie over under the rules for printing.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. STORER. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 324, file folio 257, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved the third day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred and thirty-four), entitled "An act making the proceedings of the conventions of the Departments of Pennsylvania of the Grand Army of the Republic and the United Spanish War Veterans a part of the public records of the State; and providing for their publication and distribution," by extending the provisions of said act to the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, the American Legion and the Disabled American Veterans of the World War.

on page 6 of today's calendar be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 153, file folio 129, entitled:

on page 2 of today's calendar, be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, this is a bill which provides for four additional assistant district attorneys for the district attorney of Allegheny County. This bill has been on first reading. It has been on second reading, and the proper place for this bill is on the calendar where the merits and the demerits of it can be argued pro and con. I have every reason to believe that if you will vote this motion down and permit this bill to take its place on the calendar, it will give me an opportunity to explain the reason why I favor its passage and ask for your favorable consideration. May I ask the members of this House to vote this motion to recommit down?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, it is an unusual procedure for a member of the House who is neither the sponsor of the bill nor a member of the committee to ask that a bill be recommitted. This I know by an experience of sixteen years as a member of this House. I appeal to the gentleman from Allegheny, my fellow colleague, to grant to some of the members of the delegation from Allegheny County the privilege and the courtesy of recommitting this bill for the purpose of a reasonable amendment. My friends, when you look over this bill you will see that it is an unusual bill in its construction. I have at no time in sixteen years seen a bill, to the best of my remembrance and knowledge, where the bill carries with it two distinct propositions. This bill not only asks for an increase in the salaries of the present district attorneys, but it carries with it likewise an increase of four additional district attorneys. In all fairness a bill of this type should have been constructed in companion type. They might have been introduced simultaneously. Therefore, gentlemen, though we may be probably the minority members of Allegheny County, we appeal to you to vote to recommit this bill to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Doctor Steedle has outlined the proposition to a "T." I can say this bill does not meet with the approval of the majority of the Allegheny County delegation, and we therefore ask that this bill be referred back to the committee for the purpose of amendment so that we may reach a happy medium whereby the bill may meet with the favor of all of us, and we therefore ask that you vote to recommit this bill to the Committee on Judiciary General, so we may reach that medium I have spoken of.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, and particularly the older members of the House, who have had personal contact with me in the Legislature, I want to say I have always attempted to be courteous to the members of my delegation and to the members of the other delegations. If this bill was faulty it could have been amended on second reading. It could have been amended tonight. The purpose of introducing this bill is that in Allegheny County the district attorney in the year 1928 disposed of eight thousand cases and in the month of January, 1929, this year and this January, one thousand cases were disposed of. At the present time there are twelve assistant district attorneys. This bill provides for four additional assistants and increases their salary approximately a thousand dollars for the first and second assistants and then goes down to the low man, thirty-two hundred dollars, and increases it to four thousand dollars, an increase of eight hundred dollars. There are twelve assistant district attorneys. By reason of the work in Allegheny County there have been three assistant district attorneys continuously in the indictment room, two in the district attorney's office direct, and seven constantly in trial courts. The reason for the four additional assistants is to keep the work up in the district attorney's office which has been doing the work so efficiently, and there is no reason why the bill should be recommitted. Its proper place is on the calendar and if the majority of the Allegheny County delegation is opposed to the bill they have got the chance tonight to be recorded and the proper place is right here and right now, and I again ask you to vote "No" on the motion to recommit.

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker, I just rise in my place to contradict the statement of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Stadtlander, when he states that the majority of the members of the Allegheny County delegation are opposed to this measure. I don't think that that is the case and I think if the vote is taken you will find that the majority are against a recommitment of this bill and are for its passage. I ask the members of the House to vote against this motion.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I take the same stand that Mr. Howe has taken. I do not believe that the majority of the members from Allegheny County are against this bill and I am going to ask my friends in the House to vote "No" on this motion to recommit.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I personally know nothing about the merits of this bill, but we are constantly being advised against hasty legislation. There seems to be a division among the membership of the delegation from Allegheny County as to the character this bill should have before it becomes a law. Personally, I think where there is a division of opinion and where there is a dispute of this character, it is in the interest of good government that the committee should shape a bill of this kind and put it into proper form before it comes out for final vote. From the very nature of things we who live outside of Allegheny County are not in a position to judge of the merits or demerits of a measure of this character and for that reason I believe it is in the interest of good common sense to allow this bill to go back to committee for the purpose of being perfected. It will put it back on the calendar probably one or two days, but when it comes up in correct form we who have no interest in the bill will have a better understanding as to how we should vote on this measure. I therefore support the motion to recommit.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The Speaker declared the "nays" appear to have it.

Whereupon a division was called for and fifty-four members voting in the affirmative and one hundred and five in the negative, the question was determined in the negative, the motion was not agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 44, file folio 201, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the eleventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, (P. L. 181), entitled "An act authorizing a married woman, granted a divorce from bed and board, to convey and encumber her real estate without the joinder of her husband."

on page 3 of today's calendar, be recommitted to the Committee on Repeal Bills for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 331, file folio 233, entitled:

on page 5 of today's calendar, be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Local for the purpose of a public hearing.

Mr. FULLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 153, entitled:

An Act providing for the appointment of assistant district attorneys in counties of the second class fixing their salaries payable by the county and repealing existing laws.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I regret that I have to again appeal to you and ask your indulgence just for a moment. In the previous argument my good friend from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, told the House of the dire necessity of this increase and salary raiser owing to the fact of the voluminous amount of work this district attorney's office performs. In other words, what he conveyed to the members of this House was that not only is the salary raiser necessary but likewise a number of increases. I am going to ask you, if you will, to grant me the permission to read from the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette under date of January twenty-fourth, nineteen twenty-nine. My familiarity with courts, I am willing to admit, is nil, but I believe from my knowledge, what little there is of it, that the members of the district attorney's office are men who are trained to defend and prosecute the side of the argument of the county. Now they are not so overly crowded with work in Allegheny County and the best evidence I can present in this House is what appears in the public press under the date stated. Permit me to read this to you:

"'For the first time in the memory of man, the criminal courts of Allegheny County are up to date,' declared Judge James B. Drew, presiding in criminal court yesterday when the two panels of jurors, sitting in the assignment room of the court, were dismissed about 1.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon because there were no other cases to be heard by a jury. 'The court will have a hard time trying to keep going until the February Grand Jury, which convenes the first Monday of next month, hands down its true bills,' continued Judge Drew. In catching up with the accumulation of cases over a number of years, which have clogged the court calendar, the court has also at the same time disposed of indictments handed down by the last Grand Jury which sat, that was the November session. Hereafter a Grand Jury will sit every month. This speeding-up process in the disposition of old and new cases is due to the efficiency and innovations introduced by Judge Drew since his assignment to presiding judge in criminal court, the first Monday of last September. Since that time eight hundred ninety-nine cases have been tried by jury. Judge Drew, sitting in the assignment room, has heard nine hundred and forty pleas; nolle prossed four hundred and seventy-four cases; heard two hundred thirty-two cases requiring testimony, and handed down seven hundred twenty-one decisions and orders."

Now, ladies and gentlemen, I appeal to your fairness. I have the highest respect for my colleague from Allegheny County, but I am sure you men and ladies are not going to saddle on Allegheny County four more cub lawyers, because that is what the district attorney's office is: a training school. You are not going to stand for that increase in salaries. The people of Allegheny County are burdened sufficiently with taxation and it is time that we are putting up the old crossing mark, "Stop, Look and Listen." Ladies and gentlemen, I appeal to you in all fairness to vote this bill down.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have listened very intently to the gentleman from Allegheny County, Doctor Steedle. It is needless to say that there is no man in this House whom I hold in greater admiration and respect than the gentleman from Allegheny County, but the gentleman is a medical man and not an attorney. For his information I will say to him and to the members of this House that when the Honorable Judge Drew dismissed the jury on that day, on the theory advanced by the gentleman from Allegheny County that all cases were disposed of, I desire to correct him to the extent that they were excused for the day and the same panel were back and on the job the next day. I can inform the gentleman from Allegheny that in the month of January of nineteen twenty-nine there were over nine hundred indictments brought down from the grand jury room, and in the months of March and April and continuing through the summer months the grand jury will be in session, and I again advance the idea that the calendars will be crowded and that the district attorney's office does not have sufficient assistants. You have heard so much pro and con in reference to the merits and demerits of the bill on the motion to recommit that I believe the members of the House are informed intelligently and I hope they can see their way to clear to vote "aye" on this measure.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, Feb. 6, 1929.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed a Resolution of the House and Senate providing for the appointment of a committee to arrange for the participation by the Commonwealth in the inauguration of the Honorable Herbert Hoover as President of the United States, etc.

JOHN S. FISHER.

INAUGURAL ARRANGEMENTS.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has a notice which the Clerk will read at this time.

The Clerk read the notice as follows:

In connection with the inaugural ceremonies the Members will find in their mail boxes a letter from the inaugural committee relative to the trip to Washington. In order that the committee may complete arrangements it is absolutely necessary that the information requested be furnished at the earliest possible time, and the Members will greatly assist the committee by making a prompt response.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, in this connection I would like to offer a little explanation of the letter that each of you have received this morning. I presume the letter was written in the same spirit as the legislation the House has before it, and therefore it was written in terms that you would not be able to understand so that you would feel familiar with the letter.

Arrangements have been made by the inaugural committee for special sleepers to leave Pittsburgh, Erie, Williamsport, Wilkes-Barre, Harrisburg and other points where members are likely to congregate on Sunday night of March the 3rd, to arrive in Washington on Monday morning, March 4th, about 7.55 A. M. Those going from the east or southeast and in and about Philadelphia will leave on a train that leaves Philadelphia at 7.25 A. M., arriving in Washington at 10.30. All members except those going from the Philadelphia district will purchase an inaugural ticket which will be at the rate of a fare and a half from his home to Washington and returning to his home. He is to give credit to the inaugural committee for the amount that he would ordinarily spend for railroad fare from his home to Harrisburg and return, he might have other expenses that we could not include. The difference between what he would ordinarily spend for his railroad fare from his home to Harrisburg and return, and the amount which he pays for his fare and a half ticket will be refunded by the committee.

In Washington we have been able to procure a block of seats. There are no free seats for this inauguration, except that the Senators of the United States have received ten tickets and the members of the House four tickets; all other tickets for the inauguration are sold by the inaugural committee. A ticket will be provided for each member of the House and Senate of this Legislature, and we are in hopes that there will be other tickets available for purchase so that if any of the members desire to take their wives, or if there are some of their constituents who desire to accompany them they may be able, I cannot say they will, but they may be able to procure tickets for them by paying the price per seat that we would charge, and I believe that will be about five dollars.

We want to get this information just as quickly as we can. I think that everybody ought to turn in this little slip at the bottom of the letter to the office of the Chief Clerk by to-morrow, so that we will know the number of tickets that we will have to have for these stands. There will be certain representatives in the different districts, such as Pittsburgh, Mr. Marcus; Erie, Mr. Shilling, and others over the State, who will be designated and you can go to them for information at a later date. Right now the essential thing is to find out the exact number that are going to Washington so that we can provide seats for them there.

I have just been reminded that I might suggest to you that the sleepers leaving the different points at different times will be gathered together at Harrisburg in the same train and you will arrive in Washington at the same time. A later announcement will be made, I think this evening, that the State Committee will entertain the members of the House and Senate at breakfast on that day, and following the parade in the afternoon the members of the State Committee will entertain the members of the House and the Senate at either the New Willard or the Mayflower Hotel.

We will return from Washington on the night of the fourth on the train leaving there at 8 o'clock; a special train that will carry the entire delegation back to Harrisburg, arriving here about 11.30 o'clock on Monday night, March 4th, so that you can all be ready to start work on Tuesday morning.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, some six or eight years ago, there was sent with great wisdom to this noble body a little Lord Fauntelroy out of a district in Philadelphia. That little Lord Fauntelroy served this Commonwealth and his constituency with honor and great credit in this House. Subsequently that wise constituency sought to further honor that little Lord Fauntelroy and sent him to Washington where he now represents that constituency in the House of Representatives.

The gentleman to whom I refer has gained for himself great credit and fondness in the hearts of many members of this House who I am sure this evening will be very glad to hear from him, and on their behalf, as well as on my own, I ask that the privilege of this House be extended to the Honorable Benjamin Golder of Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. The privilege of the Floor is granted and the Chair appoints the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, and the lady from Philadelphia, Mrs. Pennock to escort the gentleman to the rostrum.

It affords the Chair pleasure at this time to present to the members of the House, the Honorable Benjamin Golder, who represents the 4th Congressional District of Philadelphia, in the Congress of the United States.

The HONORABLE BENJAMIN GOLDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it would be hard for me, who has no business here to-night, to tell you why I came but if I could tell you why the North Pole attracts the needle or why the flowers attract the bees, then you would understand why the Legislature of Pennsylvania attracts me. I know of no place in the world that such a fascination, which I hold so dear to my heart, as this room and the men and women who are in that room.

I am not so sure that I was promoted when I left you men and women to go to Washington. I may have been kicked up stairs, but I feel as though I am in the cellar, and that explains why I have come here; the thrill that is mine.

May I presume to make a suggestion concerning that which was said by the chairman of the inaugural committee. When you come to Washington, as he stated, the train arrives at 7.25, those of you who are awake, look out of the window and no one will be awake in Washington. I suggest to you to tarry at the railroad station for a little.

When the chairman announced that tickets were five dollars, a gentleman who was seated at my side said, "That is pretty high." When you consider what was paid by some of our associates for a seat in Washington, you will understand that five dollars is really not so very much.

I would suggest that when you come you bring raincoats and rubbers, Washington is a very wet city. In that connection may I suggest that I might again take issue with the chairman of the committee, in that if the State Committee is to entertain you at luncheon and dinner, I should like to appoint myself a committee of one to entertain you after dinner, and I am sure, Mr. Speaker, that your House will not be in order to transact business that night.

Many things which I find here are the same; some are different. I found, for instance, when I came here three weeks ago, I came into the hall of the House in the midst of a beautiful speech by a gentleman from Allegheny who spoke of the services which the House was to obtain in the person of a great baseball player and I thought of how things have changed. When I came here in my first session I tried for two weeks to have a man appointed sergeant-at-arms. I finally succeeded and I thought I was very fortunate.

I went to that man and I told him how lucky he was. Lo and behold! I come back now and find that the House is congratulated when they secure the services of a sergeant-at-arms.

Then I found some things are the same. I hear Joe Marcus and Doc. Steedle, and they each tell you in what affection they hold each other, and yet I could see that if it had not been for some of their colleagues getting up between them that books might fly just as they did in the old days. But some things are the same; the lights, the men and the women. I am sure that if I could come back one hundred years from now I would still find the same kindly atmosphere, the same hand clasps, the same good fellowships. I left the Penn-Harris Hotel and I walked up and I saw the white dome of our Capitol and our flag flying up at the top and walked in and found the warmth and the regard of the men that I love

. . . and it is not often that a man can say that without embarrassment—that he loves other men and women, but I do. I hope to come again. I don't suppose that there will be another occasion during this session that the privilege of the floor will be granted to me, and no man deserves it more than once. I want to meet you men and women; I want you to indulge me when I come. I am glad of the privilege of the floor, even the privilege of sitting amongst you men and women. If, as a member of Congress, I can help you in your individual districts, please let me know. Let me tell you that the grass is never as green for me any place in the world as it is in the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania. I want your regard; you have my affection. I want to come again and again, and I am sure that when I do come I will always find the same kindliness, the same good fellowship and the same affection for each other that I found when I came here first in 1917, and which I am sure will continue without end.

I thank you ladies and gentlemen for the privilege of speaking in the House that I love better than any other place in all the world.

The SPEAKER. We have been glad to have the Congressman from the Fourth Congressional District address us, and we hope that he will come often.

Legislative Journal.

Session 1929 — 128th of the General Assembly

Vol. 11 — HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1929 — No. 12

SENATE

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Arthur H. James) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Christian H. Shirk, offered the following prayer:

Oh, Thou God of our Fathers, the Author of Liberty, we stand before Thee this morning. We thank Thee for the great men Thou hast given to America, particularly during the crucial periods of its history.

We think this day of the immortal Lincoln. We think of his sterling honesty, his fair dealings with his fellow-man, his generous treatment of his opponents, his sympathy for dumb animals, his genial, tactful humor, his democratic spirit as the Great Commoner, his generous sympathy for those in distress, the Great Heart among our American statesmen, the Emancipator, the believer in Thy providence, the martyr, the one for whom the nation has never ceased to mourn. We tread softly, we stand reverently, we speak in subdued tones when we think of him.

We ask largely when we pray that Thou mayest grant that a double portion of his spirit may rest upon the legislators of today, who have dedicated their lives to the completion of his unfinished tasks. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

LINCOLN'S GETTYSBURG ADDRESS.

Mr. BONBRAKE. Mr. President, appropriate to the day and occasion I should like to read the address of that great Emancipator, Abraham Lincoln:

"Fourscore and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting-place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow, this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember, what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us;—that from these honored dead, we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion;—that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain, that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

HOUSE MESSAGE.

RECOMMENDING PASSAGE OF THE UNITED STATES NAVAL BILL.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Canals and Inland Navigation.

In the House of Representatives, January 28, 1929.

Whereas There is now pending in the Congress of the United States a bill providing for a Naval Construction programme which if passed and approved by the President would add greatly to the power and efficiency of our Navy and make less probable the horror and dreadfulness of another war and

Whereas It is vital to the safety of our Nation that it should have a navy second to none in power and efficiency and necessary to our National standing and prestige that such navy should be commensurate with our world commercial and political position and

Whereas A paid lobby of pacifists with a woeful lack of patriotic interest but a fullness of selfishness is exerting every effort at Washington to block and prevent the passage of this measure which is so necessary to safeguard our maritime interests and our rights upon the seas and

Whereas It is proper that Congress should be informed as to the feeling and attitude of those who thus closely represent the citizens of the sovereign State of Pennsylvania on this most important legislation therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania recommends to the Congress of the United States the passage of the Naval Bill now pending therein in its present form and without the elimination of the time limit provisions believing that to strike out the same would mean the substitution of paper ships for those of steel that are now necessary to restore our navy to its proper standing among the navies of the world and be it further

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to the Chief Clerk of the Senate and House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative in Congress from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, February 12, 1929.

The House met at 11.00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER, (Aaron B. Hess) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Dr. Martin W. Schweitzer, offered the following prayer:

All Mighty God, we welcome Thee in all our dealings, in our national as well as in our individual lives. We thank Thee that in the dark hours of our national life Thou hast raised up Thy servant, the sixteenth President of the United States, Abraham Lincoln, to be our leader, and on this, the one hundred and twentieth birthday of our beloved, lamented President, we thank Thee for his great and exalted patriotism, and we thank Thee this morning for his honesty, for his brilliant life, for his deep humanity and for his astonishing wisdom. All these could not be kept hidden. Naturally, of themselves, they unfolded as a flower to the sunlight, and as the sunlight they shed their beneficence over the length and breadth of the land. By faith he issued his Emancipation Proclamation and broke the shackles of a million slaves. May we repeat the words of Abraham Lincoln in his address on the dedication of the Battlefield of Gettysburg: "This government of the people, for the people and by the people shall not perish" under the guidance of God. May we ever emulate the character of Lincoln as to his confidence in God and his faith in man; may we think of his conception and use of the bible and his habits of prayer, and we shall never go amiss. O God! This morning we pray that Thou wilt bless this beloved land of ours; the President of the United States, Calvin Coolidge; the President-elect, Herbert Hoover; the Governor of this Commonwealth, John S. Fisher; the Speaker of this House, the Honorable Aaron B. Hess; and all the officers and members for whom we are entitled to pray. We pray that we may consecrate and rededicate our lives anew unto Thee. We ask it in His Name. Amen.

LINCOLN'S GETTYSBURG ADDRESS.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Shaffer, who will at this time read to the House the address of the Great Emancipator which was delivered upon the occasion of the dedication of the Battlefield of Gettysburg.

Mr. SHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House: I have been asked to read Lincoln's speech this morning, which I will attempt to do.

"Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated,, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember, what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us; —that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion; —that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain, that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The clerk will read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, when, on motion of Mr. J. F. M. Baldi, 2nd, seconded by Mr. Harding, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 359, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine (P. On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EACHES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to question the sponsor of this bill and ask him to explain it.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Bidelspacher permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. EACHES. I would like to ask that this bill be explained, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill provides that incorporated or unincorporated literary, religious, charitable or beneficial society, congregation association or corporation having capacity to take and hold real and personal estate within this Commonwealth may acquire and hold the same to the extent in the aggregate of the clear annual value of $350,000. At the present time the act of June 1, 1915, amending previous acts limits these institutions to have a clear annual value of $50,000, and to no greater extent.

Under the bequest that was made Ellis College, a college for orphans girls near Philadelphia, under the bequest of Mr. Ellis, who died in 1909, he bequeathed to that institution in the way of a testamentary trust about $7,000,000. The Orphans Court of Philadelphia in passing on that held that under the act of 1915, Ellis College was limited to a clear yearly income of $50,000. In other words, that was practically five percent of income on $1,000,000 and held that under the Cy. Pres. doctrine that the other $6,000,000 would be distributed to other like charitable institutions, and thus circumvent the real intent to the donor which was to endow that particular institution. That decision is very far reaching in its consequences. Any hospital and any college in the state of Pennsylvania that has an endowment of more than $1,000,000 is in danger under this decision. Back in the days when legislation first began on this subject, in 1855, and as amended in 1915, $1,000,000 meant a lot to any college or any charitable institution, but in these days of great wealth, a matter of an endowment of two millions or three millions does not mean what it did then, as in the case Haverford College, a little college having now an endowment fund of clear yearly value which is over $350,000. This is simply to clarify the law so that these institutions that have endowment funds of a million or more dollars will be on safe ground.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 121, entitled:

An Act to provide for an additional law judge of the court of common pleas of the thirty-eighth judicial district.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we have as a neighbor a very charming and a very modest lady. She has a very sweet, very charming and dulcet voice with which her neighbors are acquainted, but it seems to me that the members of the House should have an opportunity to hear our charming neighbor upon this important and very meritorious piece of legislation. I therefore call on the sponsor of the bill to give us a short explanation of it.

Mrs. KIRKBRIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House of Representatives, this is a bill that I am very anxious to see go through, because in Montgomery we are enforcing the laws, and because we are enforcing the laws, and live next to a large city we need help. Last year we had in our courts, forty weeks of visiting judges for which the State paid at the rate of twenty dollars a day and their carfare. I have here today the endorsement of the bar association and the endorsement of all the judges in Montgomery County. Therefore, I humbly ask that this House pass this first bill I have asked for.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. C. C. A. BALDI, JR. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the sponsor of this bill to explain it? It seems as though women were the only ones permitted to cut hair, according to this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. I will be pleased to, Mr. Speaker. I feel that there is no member in this House who would be better qualified to answer the question that has been asked me than the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Baldi, in view of the fact that he has been recognized since I have been coming here as the Beau Brummel of the House. Because of the fact that he admires feminine charms more than any member in this House I can readily see that he is in hearty accord with the principles of the bill, in view of the fact that it will help to make feminine charms more beautiful than ever. May I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Baldi, to vote for this bill.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of the bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. I will Mr. Speaker

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I notice in this bill as it is worded that in case a person wanted to get a haircut or a shave or anything like that, that under the act,, if this bill would be passed, a woman would not be permitted to enter a male barber shop.

Mr. MARCUS. In answer to the interrogation of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Dunn, this bill excludes the words "barber shop."

Mr. DUNN. Under this bill, if enacted into law could a woman according to the act, enter a male barber shop?

Mr. MARCUS. She could.

Mr. DUNN. There is a word here that seems as though it is doubtful.

Mr. MARCUS. Maybe the gentleman from Philadelphia can refer to the word, or is he referring to the word "male"?

Mr. DUNN. Yes.

Mr. MARCUS. I have agreed with certain members of the House who have taken exception to what has been outlined by the gentleman from Allegheny, that if the bill passes the House the word will be stricken out in the Senate.

Mr. DUNN. What guarantee have we that it will be stricken out? I would like to ask you that question.

Mr. MARCUS. I have already agreed with the gentleman who objected to the word "male," and they have agreed with me that they would permit the bill to pass the House with the understanding that the word "male" would be stricken out in the committee of the Senate.

In further answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, as to what assurance he would have that this will be done, my only assurance would be that I give him my word and pledge myself that it will be done.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr.

Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker in section 7, there is a provision that every person licensed under this bill must pay a fee of fifteen dollars.

Mr. MARCUS. In answer to the interrogation of the gentleman from Tioga, that fee of fifteen dollars would apply, and is included in the section in the nature of reciprocity between states. If this bill were enacted into law, those who would come into the state of Pennsylvania and who could show that they have been practicing for a period of five years and satisfy the board that they have the necessary credentials, it would make the person coming from the other state pay a fee of fifteen dollars.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny. In section 3 I see that the secrtary of the board is required to give a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars. The first year he pays the premium, in subsequent years the Commonwealth pays the premium. Is that correct?

Mr. MARCUS. That is correct.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. I think that is objectionable.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BECHTEL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. I will.

Mr. BECHTEL. How would the provision or the proviso in section 5 affect a female who went into a barber shop conducted by a male for the purpose of having a hair cut?

Mr. MARCUS. In answer to the gentleman from Schuylkill, I would say that it would not affect that party at all.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT.

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be referred back to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation for a public hearing. There are very, very many drastic measures in this bill affecting a very large number of people, and the people of Pennsylvania who are affected materially by this bill ought to be given a chance to appear and defend their business. I therefore move that it be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation for a public hearing.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would inform the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Hart, that this bill has already passed third reading. In order to recommit the bill it will be necessary to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed third reading.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. FULLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the members of this House to vote down the motion for the reconsideration of the vote by which this bill passed third reading. I will say for the benefit of the gentleman making the motion that there will be no undue haste in the passage of this bill. In the event that this bill should pass finally in the House I am fully satisfied that any request for a public hearing that might be made by any group of people will be courteously received in the branch to which I hope to send the bill. The chairman of the committee on Public Health and Sanitation in the Senate has politely informed me that if this bill passes it will receive numerous public hearings, and in the light of that statement may I ask that the gentleman withdraw his motion to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed on third reading and permit the members to vote on it with my personal assurance that there will be a public hearing or as many as the gentleman may deem necessary.

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker, I very reluctantly withdraw my motion, and in withdrawing this motion I want to apprise the author of this bill that the farther these bills go in legislative enactment into law the harder it is to bring about the situation desired. However, under the promise of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, I withdraw my motion.

Mr. FULLER. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my second to the motion.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR EXTENDED TO CREW OF THE QUESTION MARK.

The SPEAKER. Ladies and gentlemen of the House, it affords the Chair extreme pleasure to request unanimous consent to extend the privilege of the floor to the crew of the Question Mark. The Chair hears no objection and the privi lege of the floor is extended in order that I may present to you some very distinguished gentlemen.

The day presenting the opportunity for the youth of America to distinguish itself has not yet passed and we have standing before us some very glaring examples.

I have the extreme pleasure of presenting to the ladies and gentlemen of the House Major Spatz, the son of an ex-member of this body, who represented the county of Berks. Major Spatz, in command of the Question Mark, established an endurance record that has never been equalled, of one hundred and fifty hours of sustained flight, and he did more than that; he took the proposition of refueling an aeroplane while in flight out of the realm of probability and placed it in the domain of an accomplished fact. It affords me great pleasure to introduce to you Major Spatz.

MAJOR SPATZ. Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen: About thirty years ago I was a page boy in the old capitol of this State, at the time my father was a Representative. At that time I had no idea I would ever stand in this position usurping the Speaker's place and talking to this distinguished body of representatives of this State. It is a pleasure for one who is from Pennsylvania to be given this opportunity. The Air Corps, which I represent, is a very vital part of this nation's defense and any opportunity I have I never lose it in order that I may try to do my little bit in impressing upon the people of the State the necessity for its maintenance and the necessity of every one being maintained in it, because some day this country is going to need it. I always feel very much embarrassed when I am trying to talk. I feel out of place in trying to make a speech and I will not detaitn you any longer on this occasion. I thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to present another member of that distinguished crew, Captain Ross Hoyt.

CAPTAIN ROSS HOYT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House: I wish to express to you my appreciation of having an opportunity of appearing here, but, like Major Spatz, I was not cut out to be a public speaker, so I will express my appreciation and retire.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to present to the House another member of the crew of the Question Mark, Lieutenant Quesada.

LIEUTENANT QUESADA. Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen: I also regret that I cannot take full advantage of this wonderful opportunity, but owing to the fact that I am no orator, but only a young army officer trying to get along, I can only say, I appreciate this honor.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to present still another member of this distinguished crew of the Question Mark, Sergeant Hooe.

SERGEANT HOOE. Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen: Not being a speaker and as we have to get back to work, I will only say good bye.

The SPEAKER. I am certain I am expressing the opinion of every member of the House when I say we are delighted in having these gentlemen with us and we wish them great success in the great things they are accomplishing and the great things they are doing for their nation.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 190, entitled:

An Act to amend section twenty-two of the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred) entitled "An act to provide for the immediate registration of all births and deaths throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by means of certificates of births and deaths and burial or removal permits requiring prompt returns to the Central Bureau of Vital Statistics as required to be established by the State Department of Health and in order to secure prompt and faithful registration of births marriages deaths and diseases of practitioners of medicine and surgery of midwives nurses and undertakers and of all persons whose occupation is deemed to be of importance in obtaining complete registration of births deaths marriages and diseases throughout the State as provided in section ten of the act entitled 'An act creating the Department of Health and defining its powers and duties' approved the twenty-seventh day of April nineteen hundred and five and providing penalties for violations of this act"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILSON. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STEEDLE. I desire to inquire from the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, if this is an administration measure?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, it is. May I say to the gentleman from Allegheny, that the purpose of this bill and the only purpose of the bill is this: Under the present law when there is a violation of the law it is a misdemeanor. A defendant charged with a violation of law, if bound over by the magistrate has to give bail and await the action of the grand jury as to whether it will indict him. After the grand jury has indicted him, if he is convicted, the costs that necessarily follow the conviction will amount to more than the fine under this bill. The only change is this: That under this act, if it is passed by the Legislature, the offense will be a summary conviction under which the defendant will be at once taken before a magistrate and if found guilty will be fined. The fine may not amount to as much as the costs will amount to under the present act of assembly. I think that if the act is passed it will help the department in that they would have a certain day on which a hearing would be held and would not have to wait until the grand jury has returned an indictment and then wait for a trial. I think the defendant would be benefited by the fact that the fine and costs would not amount to as much as the present costs would amount to.

Mr. STEEDLE. I desire to further interrogate the gentleman. Is it a fact that the whole purpose of this is to increase the fine from a minimum of five and ten dollars to a maximum of fifty and one hundred dollars?

Mr. WILSON. It does raise the amount of the fine, in the discretion of the magistrate, but I doubt whether the fine at any time would amount to as much as the costs would amount to under the old system. It does not raise the amount that the defendant would have to pay. In any of the country counties I am satisfied that the costs of such proceedings would be a minimum of thirty-five dollars and running from that to fifty, sixty or seventy-five dollars. I doubt whether the fine would amount to that. I believe that the defendant would have to pay less under this act than he would under the present law. There is no new crime created; the only thing it does is to make it a summary conviction instead of a misdemeanor which has to go before the grand jury and before the petit jury. To have the witnesses that appear before the grand jury await their turn to appear before the grand jury and then wait for the term of trial with those costs and with the mileage and the per diem amount that the witnesses will be entitled to the district attorney's costs, the county detective's costs, the clerk's costs alone will amount to more than the fine and costs under the summary conviction. I think the penalty is lessened, and I say to the gentleman from Allegheny that the effect of the act will be to lessen the amount that the defendant will have to pay. I don't think there is any question about it.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, the unfortunate part that I see in the whole procedure is that there are so many magistrates who take advantage of the slightest opportunity to convict physicians who, because of the fact that under the present law it is compulsory on the part of the physician or the midwife to report a birth within a period of ten days, may fail to do so. Unfortunately, a man may be very, very busy, especially during times such as we just experienced in Western Pennsylvania, during the influenza epidemic during the past month or two, probably a man may for the moment forget to make the report of a birth. Probably, instead of that report getting into the office of the registrar within a period of ten days, it gets there on the eleventh day; the registrar cannot accept it, he must send it back, and in turn report to the Commonwealth. Under this law that man would be convicted.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, may I answer the gentleman from Allegheny by saying this: That I yield in my respect for the members of the medical fraternity of Pennsylvania to no one. I don't think I need to say to the gentleman from Allegheny that I would not sponsor or support any legislation which tended to be severe or to bear down on the medical fraternity. May I answer the gentleman from Allegheny by saying this: That the defendant, if convicted before the magistrate, has his right to appeal, which right the Legislature will not take away from him and cannot take away from him, and if there are instances like that he could appeal by getting the consent of the court, and I am satisfied that none of the judges of this state would impose, under those circumstances, any fine that would amount to anything, and if they did he then would not be in as bad shape, as far as costs are concerned, as if he was obliged to appear before the petit jury and take his chances before them.

Mr. STEEDLE. If this is a remedial measure, permit me to say this: Why increase the fine and penalize? Five to fifty dollars is certainly ample for minor offenses, rather than increase from ten to one hundred dollars. If that is the purpose in view, then I can see no reason why you should increase the penalty.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I would say to the gentleman that I don't think the penalty is very severe.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman why the penalty should not be left at from five to fifty dollars.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, in reply to that I would say that I am not interested in the penalty. I don't think that a man convicted of this offense who is liable to a fine of from ten to one hundred dollars is in very grave danger; I think he will be better off, and it will cost him less money, when it is made a summary conviction, and I am satisfied that any man in the House who is practicing criminal law will agree with me that, under this proposed summary conviction, he will pay less money than he will by having to go before a petit jury.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman from McKean if he will agree to postpone this bill so that we may give it further study.

Mr. WILSON. I will be very glad to accede to the request of the gentleman from Allegheny.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. E. P. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 359, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine (P. L. 42), entitled "A Supplement to 'An act relating to corporations and to estates held for corporate, religious and charitable uses,' approved the twenty-sixth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, increasing the limit of real and personal estates which may be held by such corporations," by further increasing the limit of such estates which may be held by such corporations, societies or congregations.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EACHES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to question the sponsor of this bill and ask him to explain it.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Bidelspacher permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. EACHES. I would like to ask that this bill be explained, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill provides that incorporated or unincorporated literary, religious, charitable or beneficial society, congregation association or corporation having capacity to take and hold real and personal estate within this Commonwealth may acquire and hold the same to the extent in the aggregate of the clear annual value of $350,000. At the present time the act of June 1, 1915, amending previous acts limits these institutions to have a clear annual value of $50,000, and to no greater extent.

Under the bequest that was made Ellis College, a college for orphans girls near Philadelphia, under the bequest of Mr. Ellis, who died in 1909, he bequeathed to that institution in the way of a testamentary trust about $7,000,000. The Orphans Court of Philadelphia in passing on that held that under the act of 1915, Ellis College was limited to a clear yearly income of $50,000. In other words, that was practically five percent of income on $1,000,000 and held that under the Cy. Pres. doctrine that the other $3,000,000 would be distributed to other like charitable institutions, and thus circumvent the real intent to the donor which was to endow that particular institution. That decision is very far reaching in its consequences. Any hospital and any college in the state of Pennsylvania that has an endowment of more than $1,000,000 is in danger under this decision. Back in the days when legislation first began on this subject, in 1855, and as amended in 1915, $1,000,000 meant a lot to any college or any charitable institution, but in these days of great wealth, a matter of an endowment of two millions or three millions does not mean what it did then, as in the case Haverford College, a little college having now an endowment fund of clear yearly value which is over $350,000. This is simply to clarify the law so that these institutions that have endowment funds of a million or more dollars will be on safe ground.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 121, entitled:

An Act to provide for an additional law judge of the court of common pleas of the thirty-eighth judicial district.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we have as a neighbor a very charming and a very modest lady. She has a very sweet, very charming and dulcet voice with which her neighbors are acquainted, but it seems to me that the members of the House should have an opportunity to hear our charming neighbor upon this important and very meritorious piece of legislation. I therefore call on the sponsor of the bill to give us a short explanation of it.

Mrs. KIRKBRIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House of Representatives, this is a bill that I am very anxious to see go through, because in Montgomery we are enforcing the laws, and because we are enforcing the laws, and live next to a large city we need help. Last year we had in our courts, forty weeks of visiting judges for which the State paid at the rate of twenty dollars a day and their carfare. I have here today the endorsement of the bar association and the endorsement of all the judges in Montgomery County. Therefore, I humbly ask that this House pass this first bill I have asked for.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. C. C. A. BALDI, JR. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the sponsor of this bill to explain it? It seems as though women were the only ones permitted to cut hair, according to this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. I will be pleased to, Mr. Speaker. I feel that there is no member in this House who would be better qualified to answer the question that has been asked me than the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Baldi, in view of the fact that he has been recognized since I have been coming here as the Beau Brummel of the House. Because of the fact that he admires feminine charms more than any member in this House I can readily see that he is in hearty accord with the principles of the bill, in view of the fact that it will help to make feminine charms more beautiful than ever. May I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Baldi, to vote for this bill.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of the bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. I will Mr. Speaker

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I notice in this bill as it is worded that in case a person wanted to get a haircut or a shave or anything like that, that under the act, if this bill would be passed, a woman would not be permitted to enter a male barber shop.

Mr. MARCUS. In answer to the interrogation of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Dunn, this bill excludes the words "barber shop."

Mr. DUNN. Under this bill, if enacted into law could a woman according to the act, enter a male barber shop?

Mr. MARCUS. She could.

Mr. DUNN. There is a word here that seems as though it is doubtful.

Mr. MARCUS. Maybe the gentleman from Philadelphia can refer to the word, or is he referring to the word "male"?

Mr. DUNN. Yes.

Mr. MARCUS. I have agreed with certain members of the House who have taken exception to what has been outlined by the gentleman from Allegheny, that if the bill passes the House the word will be stricken out in the Senate.

Mr. DUNN. What guarantee have we that it will be stricken out? I would like to ask you that question.

Mr. MARCUS. I have already agreed with the gentleman who objected to the word "male," and they have agreed with me that they would permit the bill to pass the House with the understanding that the word "male" would be stricken out in the committee of the Senate.

In further answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, as to what assurance he would have that this will be done, my only assurance would be that I give him my word and pledge myself that it will be done.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr.

Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker in section 7, there is a provision that every person licensed under this bill must pay a fee of fifteen dollars.

Mr. MARCUS. In answer to the interrogation of the gentleman from Tioga, that fee of fifteen dollars would apply, and is included in the section in the nature of reciprocity between states. If this bill were enacted into law, those who would come into the state of Pennsylvania and who could show that they have been practicing for a period of five years and satisfy the board that they have the necessary credentials, it would make the person coming from the other state pay a fee of fifteen dollars.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny. In section 3 I see that the secrtary of the board is required to give a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars. The first year he pays the premium, in subsequent years the Commonwealth pays the premium. Is that correct?

Mr. MARCUS. That is correct.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. I think that is objectionable.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BECHTEL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. I will.

Mr. BECHTEL. How would the provision or the proviso in section 5 affect a female who went into a barber shop conducted by a male for the purpose of having a hair cut?

Mr. MARCUS. In answer to the gentleman from Schuylkill, I would say that it would not affect that party at all.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT.

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be referred back to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation for a public hearing. There are very, very many drastic measures in this bill affecting a very large number of people, and the people of Pennsylvania who are affected materially by this bill ought to be given a chance to appear and defend their business. I therefore move that it be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation for a public hearing.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would inform the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Hart, that this bill has already passed third reading. In order to recommit the bill it will be necessary to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed third reading.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. FULLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the members of this House to vote down the motion for the reconsideration of the vote by which this bill passed third reading. I will say for the benefit of the gentleman making the motion that there will be no undue haste in the passage of this bill. In the event that this bill should pass finally in the House I am fully satisfied that any request for a public hearing that might be made by any group of people will be courteously received in the branch to which I hope to send the bill. The chairman of the committee on Public Health and Sanitation in the Senate has politely informed me that if this bill passes it will receive numerous public hearings, and in the light of that statement may I ask that the gentleman withdraw his motion to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed on third reading and permit the members to vote on it with my personal assurance that there will be a public hearing or as many as the gentleman may deem necessary.

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker, I very reluctantly withdraw my motion, and in withdrawing this motion I want to apprise the author of this bill that the farther these bills go in legislative enactment into law the harder it is to bring about the situation desired. However, under the promise of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, I withdraw my motion.

Mr. FULLER. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my second to the motion.

PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR EXTENDED TO CREW OF THE QUESTION MARK.

The SPEAKER. Ladies and gentlemen of the House, it affords the Chair extreme pleasure to request unanimous consent to extend the privilege of the floor to the crew of the Question Mark. The Chair hears no objection and the privilege of the floor is extended in order that I may present to you some very distinguished gentlemen.

The day presenting the opportunity for the youth of America to distinguish itself has not yet passed and we have standing before us some very glaring examples.

I have the extreme pleasure of presenting to the ladies and gentlemen of the House Major Spatz, the son of an ex-member of this body, who represented the county of Berks. Major Spatz, in command of the Question Mark, established an endurance record that has never been equalled, of one hundred and fifty hours of sustained flight, and he did more than that; he took the proposition of refueling an aeroplane while in flight out of the realm of probability and placed it in the domain of an accomplished fact. It affords me great pleasure to introduce to you Major Spatz.

MAJOR SPATZ. Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen: About thirty years ago I was a page boy in the old capitol of this State, at the time my father was a Representative. At that time I had no idea I would ever stand in this position usurping the Speaker's place and talking to this distinguished body of representatives of this State. It is a pleasure for one who is from Pennsylvania to be given this opportunity. The Air Corps, which I represent, is a very vital part of this nation's defense and any opportunity I have I never lose it in order that I may try to do my little bit in impressing upon the people of the State the necessity for its maintenance and the necessity of every one being maintained in it, because some day this country is going to need it. I always feel very much embarrassed when I am trying to talk. I feel out of place in trying to make a speech and I will not detaitn you any longer on this occasion. I thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to present another member of that distinguished crew, Captain Ross Hoyt.

CAPTAIN ROSS HOYT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House: I wish to express to you my appreciation of having an opportunity of appearing here, but, like Major Spatz, I was not cut out to be a public speaker, so I will express my appreciation and retire.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to present to the House another member of the crew of the Question Mark, Lieutenant Quesada.

LIEUTENANT QUESADA. Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen: I also regret that I cannot take full advantage of this wonderful opportunity, but owing to the fact that I am no orator, but only a young army officer trying to get along, I can only say, I appreciate this honor.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to present still another member of this distinguished crew of the Question Mark, Sergeant Hooe.

SERGEANT HOOE. Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen: Not being a speaker and as we have to get back to work, I will only say good bye.

The SPEAKER. I am certain I am expressing the opinion of every member of the House when I say we are delighted in having these gentlemen with us and we wish them great success in the great things they are accomplishing and the great things they are doing for their nation.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 190, entitled:

An Act to amend section twenty-two of the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred) entitled "An act to provide for the immediate registration of all births and deaths throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by means of certificates of births and deaths and burial or removal permits requiring prompt returns to the Central Bureau of Vital Statistics as required to be established by the State Department of Health and in order to secure prompt and faithful registration of births marriages deaths and diseases of practitioners of medicine and surgery of midwives nurses and undertakers and of all persons whose occupation is deemed to be of importance in obtaining complete registration of births deaths marriages and diseases throughout the State as provided in section ten of the act entitled 'An act creating the Department of Health and defining its powers and duties' approved the twenty-seventh day of April nineteen hundred and five and providing penalties for violations of this act"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILSON. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STEEDLE. I desire to inquire from the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, if this is an administration measure?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, it is. May I say to the gentleman from Allegheny, that the purpose of this bill and the only purpose of the bill is this: Under the present law when there is a violation of the law it is a misdemeanor. A defendant charged with a violation of law, if bound over by the magistrate has to give bail and await the action of the grand jury as to whether it will indict him. After the grand jury has indicted him, if he is convicted, the costs that necessarily follow the conviction will amount to more than the fine under this bill. The only change is this: That under this act, if it is passed by the Legislature, the offense will be a summary conviction under which the defendant will be at once taken before a magistrate and if found guilty will be fined. The fine may not amount to as much as the costs will amount to under the present act of assembly. I think that if the act is passed it will help the department in that they would have a certain day on which a hearing would be held and would not have to wait until the grand jury has returned an indictment and then wait for a trial. I think the defendant would be benefited by the fact that the fine and costs would not amount to as much as the present costs would amount to.

Mr. STEEDLE. I desire to further interrogate the gentleman. Is it a fact that the whole purpose of this is to increase the fine from a minimum of five and ten dollars to a maximum of fifty and one hundred dollars?

Mr. WILSON. It does raise the amount of the fine, in the discretion of the magistrate, but I doubt whether the fine at any time would amount to as much as the costs would amount to under the old system. It does not raise the amount that the defendant would have to pay. In any of the country counties I am satisfied that the costs of such proceedings would be a minimum of thirty-five dollars and running from that to fifty, sixty or seventy-five dollars. I doubt whether the fine would amount to that. I believe that the defendant would have to pay less under this act than he would under the present law. There is no new crime created; the only thing it does is to make it a summary conviction instead of a misdemeanor which has to go before the grand jury and before the petit jury. To have the witnesses that appear before the grand jury await their turn to appear before the grand jury and then wait for the term of trial with those costs and with the mileage and the per diem amount that the witnesses will be entitled to the district attorney's costs, the county detective's costs, the clerk's costs alone will amount to more than the fine and costs under the summary conviction. I think the penalty is lessened, and I say to the gentleman from Allegheny that the effect of the act will be to lessen the amount that the defendant will have to pay. I don't think there is any question about it.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, the unfortunate part that I see in the whole procedure is that there are so many magistrates who take advantage of the slightest opportunity to convict physicians who, because of the fact that under the present law it is compulsory on the part of the physician or the midwife to report a birth within a period of ten days, may fail to do so. Unfortunately, a man may be very, very busy, especially during times such as we just experienced in Western Pennsylvania, during the influenza epidemic during the past month or two, probably a man may for the moment forget to make the report of a birth. Probably, instead of that report getting into the office of the registrar within a period of ten days, it gets there on the eleventh day; the registrar cannot accept it, he must send it back, and in turn report to the Commonwealth. Under this law that man would be convicted.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, may I answer the gentleman from Allegheny by saying this: That I yield in my respect for the members of the medical fraternity of Pennsylvania to no one. I don't think I need to say to the gentleman from Allegheny that I would not sponsor or support any legislation which tended to be severe or to bear down on the medical fraternity. May I answer the gentleman from Allegheny by saying this: That the defendant, if convicted before the magistrate, has his right to appeal, which right the Legislature will not take away from him and cannot take away from him, and if there are instances like that he could appeal by getting the consent of the court, and I am satisfied that none of the judges of this state would impose, under those circumstances, any fine that would amount to anything, and if they did he then would not be in as bad shape, as far as costs are concerned, as if he was obliged to appear before the petit jury and take his chances before them.

Mr. STEEDLE. If this is a remedial measure, permit me to say this: Why increase the fine and penalize? Five to fifty dollars is certainly ample for minor offenses, rather than increase from ten to one hundred dollars. If that is the purpose in view, then I can see no reason why you should increase the penalty.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I would say to the gentleman that I don't think the penalty is very severe.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman why the penalty should not be left at from five to fifty dollars.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, in reply to that I would say that I am not interested in the penalty. I don't think that a man convicted of this offense who is liable to a fine of from ten to one hundred dollars is in very grave danger; I think he will be better off, and it will cost him less money, when it is made a summary conviction, and I am satisfied that any man in the House who is practicing criminal law will agree with me that, under this proposed summary conviction, he will pay less money than he will by having to go before a petit jury.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman from McKean if he will agree to postpone this bill so that we may give it further study.

Mr. WILSON. I will be very glad to accede to the request of the gentleman from Allegheny.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. E. P. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. TURNER. Last evening I made some reference to the trip to Washington for the Inaugural. There seem to be a number of questions still persisting in the minds of the Members of the House as to the arrangements made by the Committee.

May I ask you first that you return those cards today, stating whether you are going to Washington or not. That is the most important thing at the moment. The detailed arrangements as to the time and the place where the trains will leave will be sent to you in a second bulletin that will be issued a little bit later. There seems to be some question as to the distribution of tickets. There will be one ticket for one seat in the stand for each member of this House. They will be supplied by the Committee. We have a limited reservation of tickets on stands to review the parade, that may be secured by Members of the House. The price of these tickets is from $5.00 to $7.50. We must know immediately the number of extra tickets that are wanted. These you will have to pay for out of your own pockets, but we must know at once so we can notify Washington as to the number of seats we will need in these other stands. We are holding a certain number in reservation. So let me ask you again, after you return home and inquire of your family and your friends whether they are going, wire back immediately the number of tickets you will want, otherwise you may be out of luck. Turn in your reservations now and the number of tickets you want if you know the number.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The lady will state her question of personal privilege.

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House: During the last session there were several important commissions created by the former Legislature, and these Commissions worked on the subjects allotted them during the interim. Some of the reports have been placed on your desk. One in particular that I am very much interested in is the Salary Survey Commission, which affects every Member of this House. A copy of the report of the Commission has been put on the desk of every member of the House. It would help all of us if everyone would read the report. You could all answer many questions that are now being asked of me. The information was printed and put in this form so it would be available for you all. I wish you would look around your desks and see if you don't find it there and then take it home and read it.

The SPEAKER. The report will be noted in the Journal and printed in the Appendix to the Legislative Journal.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I believe it would greatly facilitate the House in building up a third reading calendar for Tuesday of next week if all bills reported at this time receive unanimous consent to be read for the first time.

The SPEAKER. It has been suggested that the ladies and the gentlemen reporting bills from committee ask unanimous consent to have the bills read for the first time. This can be done if the bills are printed. The Chair thinks it rather unlikely that any bills will be reported that have not been printed. If the bills are read for the first time we will have a second reading calendar on Monday night next and a third reading calendar on Tuesday. If any bill is reported out and there is objection to its being read the first time the Chair will recognize such objection. In the absence of objection, if bills are printed, they will be read for the first time.

The SPEAKER (Aaron B. Hess) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Dr. Martin W. Schweitzer, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God our Heavenly Father, we humbly believe that Thou hast called us together to have communion with Thee. If that fellowship is missing our assembling is vanity. Be pleased therefore to draw us into the intimacy of Thy spirit. We pray that Thou wilt let Thy light fall upon us; that Thy light may be our light. We recognize our unworthiness and therefore we come to Thee with humble and contrite hearts. Unite our hearts to fear Thy name. Mercifully give aspiration to our prayers. Help us to separate ourselves from all that is evil and to consecrate ourselves to everything that is true and lovely. We ask all in His name. Amen.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I have here on my desk a copy of the Philadelphia Inquirer of Wednesday morning, November 21, 1928, in which there is a statement to this effect: On page 2, column 5, under the heading "Calls Legislators in Pay of 'Cults,'" and then goes on to say, "that Members of the State Legislature have taken money from the chiropractors' association in the State to work for the passage of a bill in the coming session which would break down the legal barriers that now exist against such 'healing cults,' were made by Dr. A. C. Morgan, in a talk yesterday afternoon before the Women's Auxiliary of the Philadelphia County Medical Society, Twenty-first and Spruce streets.

"Dr. Morgan, who has just retired as President of the State Medical Society," said, among other things in this statement, and I don't care to read the whole thing, "We know," he said, "that a chiropractors' bill is going to be brought before the Legislature in the coming session, and we know pretty well what members of the Legislature have accepted money to work for the passage of the measure."

"Questioned at the close of his talk as to who these Members of the State legislative body are, Dr. Morgan declared that he could substantiate the statement if called upon to do so."

Members of the House, you have often heard the accusation made against Members of the House of receiving money in the way of bribes toward doing this or doing that. We have all taken an obligation that we will not accept any money or other valuable thing toward the performance or non-performance of the duties prescribed by the Constitution. This statement, coming from a man who is a character who is well known all over the State and who represents a very high profession, a profession for which I have the greatest admiration, should not go unchallenged, and I for one don't intend to let it go that way. If this statement had come from a man on the street or someone that did not amount to very much we could probably pass it up, but I think he should be taken at his word, so therefore I offer the following resolution.

RESOLUTION.

RELATIVE TO CHIROPRACTORS' BILL

Mr. HOWE offered the following resolution and asked unanimous consent for its adoption.

The resolution was twice read as follows:

In The House of Representatives, February 12, 1929.

Whereas, Dr. Arthur C. Morgan, Past President of the Medical Society of Pennsylvania, delivered a public address in the City of Philadelphia, on the twentieth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, wherein he was quoted in the Philadelphia Inquirer, and other newspapers, as having made the following statement:

> "We know that a Chiropractors Bill is going to be brought before the Legislature in the coming Session, and we know pretty well what members of the Legislature have accepted money to work for the passage of the measure," and

Whereas, The said Dr. Arthur C. Morgan does not deny that he was correctly quoted as above stated, but the allegation of any money being paid to or accepted by any member of the Legislature to secure the passage of a bill favorable to Chiropractors, is emphatically denied by the persons active in the Pennsylvania Chiropractors' Association, therefore be it

Resolved, That the said Dr. Arthur C. Morgan is hereby directed to submit to the House of Representatives on or before the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine, such facts as the said Dr. Morgan may have, with the names of the persons offering money to members of the General Assembly, and the names of Members accepting money to secure the passage of any bill or measure favorable to Chiropractors.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the adoption of the resolution? The Chair hears no objection and the consent is granted.

The resolution was adopted.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, it is in regard to some newspaper editorials of last week in Pittsburgh in regard to what I was going to do in regard to the coal and iron police situation.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have been a member of the State Legislature from my own district for four sessions and I don't think that ever before the papers or the press ever attempted to say before I offered anything what I was going to do. Last week there appeared quite a lot of editorials as to what different members of the Legislature were going to do in regard to the coal and iron police situation as the result of the brutal killing of one of our citizens in our county in an attempted arrest. Now we all know, if we know anything, that the coal and iron police law has been on the books for sixty-three or sixty-four years. Every once in a while we have some uprising or some disturbance which gives some trouble. The blame is often put on them and sometimes it is fastened on them. After this particular case, which has been given state-wide notoriety, I think it is high time to take some action to investigate these officers. In the recent Federal investigation in our county last fall into one of the disturbances there it was brought out in the hearing that one company during the recent troublesome situation had had commissioned as high as twenty-two hundred officers under the State coal and iron police law, while about two years later, at the time of this Federal investigation, they could only give the names and whereabouts of twenty-two, yet the whole twenty-two hundred were running over the State at large with coal and iron police commissions and badges. I think that is an alarming state of affairs and the purpose of this resolution is to call upon these different companies that have coal and iron police to report the number and the names of these men, where they are located, and also if the companies desire to have these men in their employ that they shall be responsible for their actions while in their employ, and when they discharge them they shall report that fact to the Governor and lift these commissions and these badges.

RESOLUTION.

COAL AND IRON POLICE.

Mr. BALDRIGE offered the following resolution and asked unanimous consent for its adoption.

The resolution was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 18, 1929.

Whereas, In the recent Federal investigation into the coal strike in Western Pennsylvania, involving the coal and iron police, it was brought out that one company alone, two years prior to that investigation, had caused to be commissioned as many as twenty-two hundred coal and iron police, and that at the time of the investigation two years later, said company could only give the whereabouts and addresses of twenty-two of such officers who were still in their employ, and

Whereas, There has been a recent brutal killing brought about in an attempted arrest of citizens of the Commonwealth by such coal and iron police, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the various corporations and companies employing such police officers commissioned by the Governor, are hereby required to furnish to the General Assembly a list of names and addresses of such officers commissioned at their instigation, and the commissions of whom have not been revoked of record, and the whereabouts of the persons holding such commissions, which report shall be furnished not later than March fifteenth, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine, and be it further

Resolved, That it is the sense of the General Assembly the present law be amended in such a way that the corporations and companies employing such officers be held responsible for the actions and conduct of such officers while in their employ, and that such corporations and companies at the termination of the services of such officers be required to notify the Governor and lift the commissions and badges of such officers at the termination of their services, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution shall be transmitted by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to each corporation and company at whose instance, as may appear from records in the office of the Department of State, commissions have been issued to such policemen.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the adoption of the resolution? The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

Ordered, That the resolution lie over for printing.

RESOLUTION.

BILLS IN THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC ROADS.

Mr. TURNER offered a resolution, which was twice read as follows:

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, in your mail box tonight you received a second bulletin from the joint legislative inaugural committee. May I ask all members of the House to read that bulletin carefully and thus save us from a lot of questions we are being asked. In the second place, you will note that the latest time you can get your reservations in to attend the inaugural on March 4th is tomorrow at twelve o'clock noon. Please return your slips to the Chief Clerk of the House, Mr. White's, office by noon tomorrow.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to call the attention of those members of the House who belong to the Kiwanis Club to the fact that the Kiwanis Club of Washington will have headquarters in the Washington Hotel and most respectfully invite all members of this House to call around and visit them.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, we have with us this evening a gentleman who had a very distinguished record in this House and whom we all love, honor and respect; a man who was perhaps one of the most conspicuous members of this House for three or four sessions, and in every session he always had the distinction of making himself heard and making his cause felt. I refer to the Honorable William C. Alexander of Delaware. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that he be given the opportunity to address the House at this time.

The SPEAKER. The privilege of the floor is granted and the Chair appoints the gentleman from York, Mr. Spangler, to escort the gentleman to the rostrum.

It affords the Chair pleasure at this time to present to you the Honorable William C. Alexander, a former member of this House.

REMARKS BY THE HONORABLE WILLIAM C. ALEXANDER.

The HONORABLE WILLIAM C. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I assure you it is a great pleasure for me to greet my present friends and my colleagues of yesterday. I want to congratulate you on having such a fine looking gentleman for your Speaker. Mr. Hess brings to my mind some very fond memories. We used to know a grand old man of Lancaster who was known as the "Red Rose of Lancaster." I am glad to see that your Speaker is taking up that trail and can also be called the "Red Rose of Lancaster," and that the memories of my dear old friend will be continued.

I congratulate you also on representing the greatest Commonwealth in the world. I am glad to see such a large majority of the old members have returned. It is a pleasure, as I said before, to greet you all as I come to the House and I am glad to meet you. I wish there was something I could say to you that might be of benefit to you, and if it is not presuming too much, may I say, especially to the younger members, those of you who are serving your first term, that you have a great work to perform; the older members know that from experience. It was my experience in the five sessions in which I was a member of this House that no man could know his business properly unless he came in close contact with the institutions to which you will appropriate large sums of money. You have, of course, the benefit of having your budgeteer, your budget agent, that we didn't have in the earlier sessions, but even with that you will find that if you take a little time and go and visit your State institutions, I think you will get an experience from seeing the great work which you as the agents of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are assisting in; I refer to those great institutions that are doing so much in this Commonwealth for humanity, where the mental defectives are being taken care of, where the tubercular patients are being treated. As you go around to these different institutions you will see that the servants, the heads of these institutions, in many instances, are sacrificing a great deal in their work. You will appreciate that more if you get into close contact with these institutions and I am sure that you will be better able to properly legislate for those institutions.

I thank you for this privilege of again meeting you. It brings back to me the fond recollections of the five sessions when I served in this House with a great many of you. These I say are fond recollections to me. While at times we differed on legislation, at the same time notwithstanding we had our differences, after each contest was over we could all shake hands as friends, and after all that is all life is. I again thank you.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am sure that we have appreciated very much the remarks of the distinguished gentleman from Delaware, a former member of the House. It is on rare occasions indeed that the House is favored with the presence of not only one but of two distinguished former members of the House as is the case tonight. I refer to the Honorable Charles Armstrong. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that he be given an opportunity to address the House at this time.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection, and the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Goodnough, will escort the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Armstrong, to the rostrum.

The Chair presents Mr. Armstrong from Armstrong, a former member.

REMARKS BY THE HONORABLE CHARLES F. ARMSTRONG.

The HONORABLE CHARLES F. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I am pleased that Alexander is here tonight because you all know, or at least the older members do, that I am not in the habit of making speeches. I do appreciate being with you tonight and meeting my old friends of the last ten years. I think Mr. Alexander and I came here together ten years ago. I notice in reading the papers that you have been getting along very smoothly. I attribute some of this to the absence of the disturbing elements that were members of the last few houses. I wish for you a most successful session and I am sure you will have it. I also congratulate you on your selection of a Speaker. And I thank you.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in the session of 1927, and sessions preceding that, there was a member of the Allegheny County delegation that we greatly admired and that admiration was extended by every member of the House. By reason of the fact of the importance of his committee and the able and capable manner in which he handled that very delicate position, and the admiration which the members have long felt towards him, I ask unanimous consent of this House, Mr. Speaker, to call upon the former member from Allegheny, Mr. C. J. McBride.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection, and Mr. Marcus is appointed to escort the former member to the rostrum.

The Chair presents the Honorable Mr. McBride, "Charlie" McBride, chairman of the Committee on Appropriations in the sessions of 1925, 1926 and 1927.

REMARKS BY THE HONORABLE C. J. McBRIDE.

The HONORABLE C. J. McBRIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as you know, I am not a speechmaker and I am not going to make any speech tonight. It is indeed a pleasure to be here and mingle with you again and I want to thank you one and all for the cordial and kind reception which you have given me on my visit here. I thank you.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. SCHILLING. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SCHILLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, being one of the members of the minority party, I feel after what we have just listened to that it would be the proper thing to ask the unanimous consent of this House to hear a former member of this House, the Honorable Charles A. Shaffer of Columbia County.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection, and the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Schilling, is appointed to escort the former member to the rostrum.

The Chair takes great pleasure in presenting to you a former member, Mr. Charles Shaffer of Columbia County.

REMARKS BY THE HONORABLE CHARLES A. SHAFFER.

The HONORABLE CHARLES A. SHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, members of the General Assembly and friends, I am glad to look into the faces, of many who are old associates of mine. After serving twelve consecutive years in this House you will have formed an acquaintance that you cannot forget, and many pleasant ones. I congratulate the Speaker on one thing that I observed tonight, and that is that when the hour of nine o'clock arrived he was on the rostrum and called this House to order on time. May this session be one of the best. I know that the accomplishing of your work will show to the State of Pennsylvania a good work for the State. I thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to take the privilege at this time of calling upon the Honorable Mr. Walker of Philadelphia.

REMARKS BY THE HONORABLE JAMES A. WALKER.

The HONORABLE JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have been informed by your committee on exercises for tomorrow in celebration of Washington's Birthday that I am to address you at that time. If you will, therefore, permit me at this time to say, I appreciate very much the courtesy of the Speaker in permitting me to say to you, "How do you do," and thank you for all the courtesies you have shown me when visiting you, I will now retire.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. FOX. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until tomorrow morning at 11.00 o'clock.

Mr. REED. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to, and at 10.45 o'clock P. M. the House adjourned until tomorrow at 11.00 o'clock.

ERRATA.

The name of William Boud Smith should be inserted in all roll calls on bills on third reading on Wednesday, February 6th, 1929, as voting "aye."

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Christian H. Shirk, offered the following prayer:

Our gracious Heavenly Father, we are approaching the season of the year in which we honor the father of our country. We love to hear the story of those pioneers who came to America in search of freedom and when the hand of oppression reached across the seas after them Thou didst have a man for the hour, through whom they could realize the liberties they loved.

We thank Thee for the inspiration that the immortal Washington has been to the people of America. We thank Thee for his life of truth, his sincerity, his gentlemanly bearing and gallantry, his willingness to forsake the comforts of home and endure great hardships, his self-sacrificing disposition, his superior statesmanship, his devout spirit, his unflinching bravery, his trust in Thee.

He stands before us as the great American ideal; and we pray that the memories of Washington may chasten our spirits and make out of us better citizens and more faithful servants of Thine. Amen.

Gracious Father, we thank Thee for the watch of the past night and the light of the new day. Father in Heaven, here this morning show us our sinfulness, us who think we are so good. Make us ashamed of our empty hands and bloated comfortableness. Make us uneasy over our own moral shabbiness and spiritual leanness. Lord, wake us up. Make us real. Flood our souls with love and compassion for our fellows. So fill us with Thyself that our lives shall be a message, breathing God, and pouring balm into needy hearts. "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow us all the days of our life and we shall dwell in the House of the Lord forever!" Amen.
